

CROATIA

Posted on December 28, 2020 by Naeem Noor

Croatia is a country in Europe. The official name of Croatia is the Republic of Croatia. It shares borders with 5 countries: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Hungary, Montenegro, Serbia, and Slovenia. The people of Croatia are called Croatians. The country is in Southeastern Europe, bordering the Adriatic Sea, between Bosnia, Herzegovina, and Slovenia.

Etymology discusses where a term is considered to have originated from and how its meaning has changed over time. Etymology has been a factor in the naming of countries all across the world, and Croatia has also been influenced. The etymology of Croatia can be defined as; The most common theory derives it from Harahvat, the Old Persian name for the Arachosia or Helmand River, or Harahuvatiš, the land surrounding it.

An ethnicity is a group or sub-group of people who are connected based on common characteristics which may include religion, origin, language, traditions, or culture. The ethnic groups in Croatia include Croats and Serbs.

Croatia Airlines is the national airline of Croatia. The national colors of the country are red, white, and blue. The emoji flag of the country is 🇭🇷, and the ISO code is HRV.

Croatia is known for its Ancient Roman ruins and the Dalmatian coast. The national dish of Croatia is Peka. Rakija, in addition to being a traditional beverage, is one of the country's national drinks. The national instruments of Croatia are Violins, Cimbule, Tamburice, and Harmonike.

The country has the time zone UTC+1 (CET) followed by dd/mm/yyyy as the standard date format.

Croatia is divided into 21 counties. The capital of the country is Zagreb, which is also the largest city in Croatia.

The literacy rate in Croatia is 99.1%.

The country's total area is 56,594 km² (21,851 sq mi), and the total population is 4,105,267. The country's average elevation is 331 m (1,086 ft), whereas the country's terrain can be defined as; Geographically diverse; flat plains along the Hungarian border, low mountains, and highlands near the Adriatic coastline and islands. The country's usual climate is Mediterranean and continental; the continental climate is predominant with hot summers and cold winters; mild winters, and dry summers along the coast.

The area of land next to a sea is called the coast, and a coastline is defined as the line where land and sea meet. Croatia has 5,835 km of coastline.

The Euro serves as the national unit of currency, and Croatian National Bank is recognized as the country's central bank. The domain for Croatia is .hr and the country code is +385. Red-white checkerboard is the country's coat of arms.

Museums are known to educate and connect visitors with the nation's history, culture, civilization, art, and architecture. The Croatian History Museum serves the same purpose and is considered one of the most significant tourist attractions. The Croatian History Museum is home to a large collection of artifacts. It has been designated as the national museum of the country.

The national dress of Croatia is the Hrvatska narodna nošnja, and 30 May is designated as National Day. In Croatia, the majority of the population practices Christianity Catholicism, Orthodoxy, Protestantism, and Islam as their religion.

Nature is a blessing from God and we must protect it because it provides us with the oxygen and food to survive. It also helps to keep our environment beautiful and clean. To emphasize the significance of nature, Croatia has selected a few forces of nature as national symbols. Croatia's national bird is the Nightingale, while its national animal is the Meek Marten. The national flower is Iris Croatica . The national tree of Croatia is the Slavonian oak, and the highest peak is Dinara.

Mythical creatures can be found in the literature and mythologies of many different nations. They represent imaginative representations of various creatures, humans, or hybrids. They are known for their specific features, supernatural abilities, and distinctive appearance. The mythical creature of Croatia is Krampus.

Sports have always played an important role in developing the social and cultural structure of Croatia and other countries. When it comes to designating a sport as the official symbol, Football is considered the country's national sport.

Poetry is a highly valued form of art, and many poets are considered significant national symbols of the country. The national poets of Croatia are Marko Marulić and Miroslav Krleža.

Ante Starčević is the founder of Croatia. The country's national anthem was written by Antun Mihanović, and composed by Josip Runjanin.

The country's national hero is General Ante Gotovina.

Numerous organizations are working on a global level to improve the current state of affairs and to collaborate in order to establish and maintain constructive partnerships. Croatia is a member of the European Union \(EU\), North Atlantic Treaty Organization \(NATO\), and United Nations \(UN\). Croatia collaborates with them to organize, analyze, and address various events and situations.

The tourism slogan of the country is "Full of Life".

Andrej Plenković is the current Prime minister of Croatia, and Zoran Milanović is the President.

Croatia has declared Croatian as the country's official language.

- Learn about Croatia flag color codes and their meanings -

- Further information regarding the symbols and knowledge of Croatia can be found in the table of contents -

There are no comments yet.