

SINGAPORE

Posted on December 28, 2020 by Naeem Noor

Singapore is a country in Asia. The official name of Singapore is the Republic of Singapore. It shares borders with 2 countries: Malaysia, and Indonesia. The people of Singapore are called Singapore. The country is in Southeastern Asia, with islands between Malaysia and Indonesia.

Etymology discusses where a term is considered to have originated from and how its meaning has changed over time. Etymology has been a factor in the naming of countries all across the world, and Singapore has also been influenced. The etymology of Singapore can be defined as; "Lion City", from Singapura (in Malay) derives from the Sanskrit word 'simhapura'.

An ethnicity is a group or sub-group of people who are connected based on common characteristics which may include religion, origin, language, traditions, or culture. The ethnic groups in Singapore include Chinese, Malay, and Indians.

Singapore Airlines is the national airline of Singapore. The national colors of the country are red and white. The emoji flag of the country is ????????, and the ISO code is SGP.

Singapore is known for its Singapore is known for delicious food, cleanliness, strict laws, and attractions such as Marina Bay. The national dish of Singapore is Chicken rice. Singapore sling cocktail, in addition to being a traditional beverage, is one of the country's national drinks. The national instrument of Singapore is Violin.

The country has the time zone UTC+8 (Singapore Standard Time) followed by dd/mm/yyyy as the standard date format.

Singapore is divided into 5 districts and 31 constituencies. The capital of the country is Singapore, which is also the largest city in Singapore.

The literacy rate in Singapore is 97.0%.

The country's total area is 728.3 km<sup>2</sup> (281.2 sq mi), and the total population is 5,850,342. The country's average elevation is 15 m (49 ft), whereas the country's terrain can be defined as; Lowland; gently undulating central plateau containing a water catchment area and nature preserve. The country's usual climate is tropical; hot, humid, and rainy; two distinct monsoon seasons - Northeastern monsoon (December to March) and Southwestern monsoon (June to September); inter-monsoon - frequent afternoon and early evening thunderstorms.

The area of land next to a sea is called the coast, and a coastline is defined as the line where land and sea meet. Singapore has 193 km of coastline.

The Singapore dollar serves as the national unit of currency, and the Monetary Authority of Singapore is recognized as the country's central bank. The domain for Singapore is .sg and the country code is +65. Lion, merlion (mythical half lion-half fish creature), and orchid is the country's coat of arms.

Museums are known to educate and connect visitors with the nation's history, culture, civilization, art, and architecture. The National Museum of Singapore serves the same purpose and is considered one of the most significant tourist attractions. The National Museum of Singapore is home to a large collection of artifacts. It has been designated as the national museum of the country.

The national dress of Singapore is the Baju kurung, and 9 August is designated as National Day. In Singapore, the majority of the population practices Buddhism, Christianity, Islam, Taoism, and folk religion as their religion.

Nature is a blessing from God and we must protect it because it provides us with the oxygen and food to survive. It also helps to keep our environment beautiful and clean. To emphasize the significance of nature, Singapore has selected a few forces of nature as national symbols. Singapore's national bird is the Crimson sunbird, while its national animal is the Asiatic lion. The national flower is Hybrid orchid, whereas the national tree of Singapore is the Tembusu tree, and the highest peak is Bukit Timah.

Mythical creatures can be found in the literature and mythologies of many different nations. They represent imaginative representations of various creatures, humans, or hybrids. They are known for their specific features, supernatural abilities, and distinctive appearance. The mythical creature of Singapore is Merlion.

Sports have always played an important role in developing the social and cultural structure of Singapore and other countries. When it comes to designating a sport as the official symbol, Football is considered the country's national sport.

Poetry is a highly valued form of art, and many poets are considered significant national symbols of the country. The national poet of Singapore is Edwin Thumboo.

Lee Kuan Yew is the founder of Singapore. The country's national anthem was written and composed by Zubir Said.

Mausoleums are buildings dedicated to holding someone's remains. It serves as a reminder of the nation's revolutionary fighters who sacrificed their lives for the country. Mausoleums are one of the most significant historical landmarks. The national mausoleum of Singapore is Lim Bo Seng Memorial, and the country's national hero is Lim Bo Seng.

Due to their unique qualities and rich cultural or historical backgrounds, national monuments around the world are of great importance. Former City Hall is recognized as the national monument of the country. It attracts visitors from all around the world.

Numerous organizations are working on a global level to improve the current state of affairs and to collaborate in order to establish and maintain constructive partnerships. Singapore is a member of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations \(ASEAN\), Commonwealth of Nations, and United Nations \(UN\). Singapore collaborates with them to organize, analyze, and address various events and situations.

The tourism slogan of the country is "Passion Made Possible" whereas, "Majulah Singapura - "Onward Singapore" is the official motto of the country.

Lee Hsien Loong is the current Prime minister of Singapore, and Halimah Yacob is the President.

Singapore has declared Malay as the country's official language.

see singapore national animal

- Further information regarding the symbols and knowledge of Singapore can be found in the table of contents -

There are no comments yet.